Both courses trail through hundreds of acres of natural Tennessee wetlands and along the banks of the beautiful Cumberland River.
Roaming both courses are the renowned Scottish Blackfaced sheep. The event will surely be a sellout with 36 teams!

PHHH is a 30-room medical housing facility in Nashville helping critically-ill patients and their families who live out of town, but who need low-cost overnight lodging and other supportive services.

We have helped over 22,000 families since 1974.
